

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

Development of Collaborative Language & Relationships in MCPS

---

Spring of 1997	MCEA first proposes interest-based bargaining . The Board of Education agrees (albeit in a narrow, split decision)
Summer of 1997	The union president and the deputy superintendent work to draft a new Preamble to the contract, which begins “The parties to this Agreement believe that a quality education is a fundamental right of every child” .
1997 - 1998	Intensive four day joint training of the bargaining teams by Conflict Management Inc. (now Thoughtbridge Inc.). Followed by facilitated negotiations, resulting in overwhelming ratification of the first IBB contract in the spring of 1998. The Agreement creates a Joint Work Group to plan and implement a new professional development and evaluation process, including consideration of a PAR (peer assistance) Program.
2001	The parties agree to the establishment of a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program as part of a broader Professional Growth System. Foundational language creating PAR is included in the contract, and a newly constituted PAR Panel is charged with developing operational procedures.
2004	Language is negotiated into the contract establishing the Professional Growth System Implementation Team to collaboratively oversee operations of the PGS system.
2005	The administration and all three unions (teachers, administrators and supporting services staff) develop the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact which is signed by all parties, including the Board of Education.
2010	The administration and all three unions develop and sign the Collaborative Compact on School Climate and negotiate contract language creating a joint Collaborative Management Coordinating Committee (CMCC) to support and improve collaborative problem-solving processes within the district.
2010	New language is negotiated into the contract memorializing the collaborative practices that had developed of the union’s involvement in the Operating Budget Review Committee and the ongoing “Associations/Deputies/Chief Operating Officer Committee” (ADC) through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication. Additionally, the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact is incorporated as an appendix to the contract.

Structure of the Collaboration Article in the MCEA/MCPS Contract (2010)

---

Section
A	Mutual commitment to collaboration
A	Definition of collaboration
B	(pre-existing language about regular meetings between the union’s Board and the Board of Education and Superintendent)
C	Incorporation of the Organizational Culture of Respect Compact
D	Recent new language about mutual commitment to equitable practices
E	Enumeration of the specific structures and processes that have been developed for ongoing collaborative work. Including, but not limited to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The ADC – regular bi-weekly meetings through which the senior leadership of the three unions and the Superintendent’s staff meet every two weeks for ongoing problem-solving, planning, coordination and communication.</li> <li>- The union’s involvement in the development of the district’s annual operating budget</li> <li>- The union’s participation in the districts Executive Leadership Team</li> </ul>
F	Details on the MCEA Labor Management Collaboration Committee (LMCC) – a bilateral process for “regular, on-going discussions”, that now include an important focus on overseeing and supporting other bilateral collaborative processes within the district, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Details on the MCEA Councils on Teaching and Learning, the structure/process developed for collaboration on curriculum, instruction and assessment</li> <li>- Non-school based Collaboration Committees that provide the structure/process for collaboration and shared decision-making in program areas (such as special education, ESOL, student services, etc.</li> </ul>

