

MCEA's Family Medical Crisis Leave Bank (FMCLB)

The MCEA Family Medical Crisis Leave Bank (FMCLB) allows employees who have exhausted all available leave to assist immediate family members during serious illness/injury. The Bank is available for members to receive additional leave once their accumulated sick leave, personal leave, annual leave, and any paid leave available to them has been exhausted.

This Bank is different from the MCEA Sick Leave Bank which can be used only for the member's personal illness. As of 2013, all new hires are automatically enrolled in the MCEA Sick Leave Bank unless they choose to opt out. There is no automatic enrollment in the FMCLB.

The FMCLB is intended solely for situations that are catastrophic and life-threatening to members of the immediate family and that require a unit member to be temporarily absent from his/her assignment.

ENROLLMENT (please review all the information below)

You must enroll in MCEA's FMCLB and donate one day of sick leave upon enrollment to have access to benefits.
